Komsomolsk-on-Amur

2018

Someone learns English, because he wants to communicate with different people while travelling.

Someone wants to write books or songs in English or to get a better job.

The aim of our project is to study the role of English in the specialty of a tourism manager.

The problems of our project are:

- to find out the place of English in the work of a tourism manager;
- to show the advantages of a specialist who knows English;
- to show the role of English in our life.
